Ordinary Kevin Oliver shouts "KWAH" and becomes REDHAWK, superhero extraordinaire, in this original comic strip adventure.

Alternating between the characters of REDHAWK and KEVIN you must use all your superhuman skills to battle against the arch-villains and criminals who pose threats to your city. At the same time you must keep a careful check on your popularity rating, your energy level and have enough money to get you around!

But remember — time is of the essence, and unless you cope with the challenging problems posed in this unique graphic adventure, the whole city will go up in a big bang!
